Make your way through the covered porch and into Homesite 62, where an open layout brings the main living spaces together. The dining area leads into the kitchen, featuring a spacious center island with plenty of room for meal prep, casual dining and gathering. Just beyond, the great room offers an inviting space to relax or entertain, with easy access to the outdoor area. Head upstairs to a versatile loft that can easily become a second living area, play space or home office. Nearby, two secondary bedrooms share a full bath, while the conveniently located laundry room keeps everyday tasks close at hand. The primary suite is tucked away on the opposite side of the floor for added privacy and features a spacious walk-in closet and private bath. What makes Homesite 62 even more special is its location, with no direct front or side neighbor for an added sense of privacy. - No direct front or back neighbor - Open kitchen with spacious center island - Connected dining and great room - Covered front porch - Versatile upstairs loft - Convenient upstairs laundry room - Private primary suite with walk-in closet - Two-car garage Ready to see Homesite 62 for yourself?
